

The Cactus and Succulent Society of New Mexico will be holding its annual spring plant show and sale on Saturday, April 11 and Sunday, April 12, 2020

Location: the Albuquerque Garden Center at 10120 Lomas Blvd., NE, from 10 AM until 4 PM each day. There is no admission charge.

The show will display several hundred plants, including some of the finest specimens from many different private collections in our region, including our society's members.

You do not need to be a member to exhibit plants. Please bring your very best cacti and succulents to be exhibited at this show. Entries are accepted at the Albuquerque Garden Center on Friday, April 10, from 1 PM to 8 PM. Helpful information on entering your own plants can be found at a link at the society's main website, accessed via:

Remember that you may not retrieve the plants you entered until the show closes, at 4 PM on Sunday.

In addition to the judged show, the society's annual sale brings in vendors, from various places, that provide a wide variety of cacti and other succulent plants available for purchase; they range from bargain starter plants to spectacular specimens. Some excellent specimen plants will be sold via a silent auction, which will be done at least one of the days. Bidders are urged to be present at the close of bidding to purchase the plants, and take them home. An additional special feature of the sale is a selection of some locally grown, hardy species for the yard---at least in Albuquerque, and, sometimes, further north.
